Graduate Student Research Award 2010
Chengyan Liu and Cui Na, Global MBA
Dr. Suling Zhang, Research Advisor

Chengyan Liu and Cui Na have been actively working on the project of onshore-offshore competition. They conducted thorough literature review and helped analyzing interview results. They demonstrated high level of independent thinking and strong research skills. They co-authored on two research papers, one submitted to AMCIS 2010 conference and ICIC 2010 conference. Both conferences are well-regarded in the information systems field.

The conference proceedings are double-blind peer-reviewed and are published in AIS database and ACM database. The two papers they coauthor are of high-quality.
